

VIDEO CONTEST' " THE EUROPEAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN 70 SECONDS "

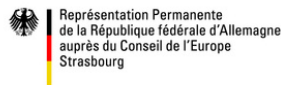

On the occasion of the 70th anniversary of the European Convention on Human Rights, the Lieu d'Europe, The Information Centre on the European Institutions Europe Direct, The Council of Europe, The European Court of Human Rights and their partners are offering young people aged 12 to 15 years to produce a short video on an article of the Convention.

To your cameras and smartphones!

The European Convention on Human Rights guarantees human rights to 830 million people from 47 member states of the Council of Europe. The first Signatory states met on 4 November 1950, 70 years ago, hit. You can choose an article of the Convention from articles 2 to 14 for your video and present it as you wish, alone or in a group, with or without words, in German or French.

The whole thing in about 70 seconds!

Creativity, humour, filters and special effects are welcome!

FONDATION RENÉ CASSIN

VIDEO CONTEST

" THE EUROPEAN CONVENTION ON HUMAN RIGHTS IN 70 SECONDS "

Topic: Presenting an article of the European Convention on Human Rights in video form (select from Articles 2 to 14)

Duration: approx. 70 seconds

Language: German or French (or without dialogues)

Participants: Young people between 12 and 15 years of age. The competition is open to Individuals, schools, socio-cultural centres and youth groups

Number of participants: Individual or group video (maximum 5 people)

Catchment area: Eurodistrict Strasbourg-Ortenau

Registration and closing date: Prior registration is requested by 10 December 2020 by e-mail to lieudeurope@strasbourg.eu After that you will receive further documents (text of the convention, digital sources, etc.) Deadline for sending in the videos is 4 April 2021. You can send your video by email to lieudeurope@strasbourg.eu or on a USB stick by post to Lieu d'Europe, 8 rue Boecklin, 67000 Strasbourg, keyword "Concours 70 to the Convention DH".

Copyright and distribution: Participants must fill in a form in which they give their names and allow the organisers to publish the videos on their websites and social networks. The forms will be handed out at registration.

Composition of the jury: The jury will be composed of representatives of the Lieu d'Europe and the City of Strasbourg, the CIIE, a judge of the European Court of Human Rights, a representative of the Council of Europe and a representative of the competition partners. The award ceremony will take place in May 2021.

- First prize: A day in Europapark, a visit to the Council of Europe and/or the European Court of Human Rights, games and books
- Second prize: a visit to the Council of Europe and/or the European Court of Human Rights, games and books
- Third prize: Games and books

All participants will receive a small thank you.